Yorktown Items. Our items were delayed last week, and did not get around in time, but Oct. 7, 1886. hope these may get in in time to be printed. Another contest. The claim of Mr. Waters has a contest on it. His family starts to-day from Michigan to Thomas county, to make it their home. Will get here only to find it taken from them. Hope there is a law that will give their home back to them.

M. D. Claypoole is hauling his cane to the molasses mill. Mr. Worthing makes them.

Mrs. Ed Sunday, from Seward, Neb. and Mrs. Moore, of Thomas county, were guests of Mrs. W. H. Hull last week. Mrs. Sunday, it will be re-membered, was the lady who lost her husband last spring. He died in Oberlin. Got that far with their goods. He was taken back dead. She has been out having a house built on her claim, on which she iftends to make her home after next spring.

Mr. William Howell has his house finished except the plaster. He has his well augur about ready for work. A good many waiting on him.

There was a certain family went out riding and intended to camp on the prairie. The wind rose so high that they sought shelter, but got lost. Finally they made their bed under the wagon tongue and retired. We would advise his wife to put a bell on him next time, so he can find himself if he gets lost.

But this is getting too lengthy. So O. O. D. ta, ta.
